As we look back in this mirror of time
We see the reflections of joy and laughter
And promises for what we might someday be
With hopes that tomorrow
may bring us to know
What life is really all about.

To find our goals and the dreams we seek
And to smile and say thank you in some kind of way
Is to have known just a little about the reflections of life.

Homecoming week is climaxed by a 50-0 victory over Fairfield.

Homecoming evening began with the very successful chicken barbecue sponsored by Girls' Sports Club. This was followed by a parade around the track reflecting the theme "Victory: A Warrior Tradition."Winners of the awards were: Class Float: Freshmen; Club Float: Cheerleaders; Most Appropriate to the Theme: DECA; Most Original: FFA. The WHS Marching Band performed at half-time to the theme "Symbols of Democracy." Completing the evening's events was a dance featuring the band, Ethos.

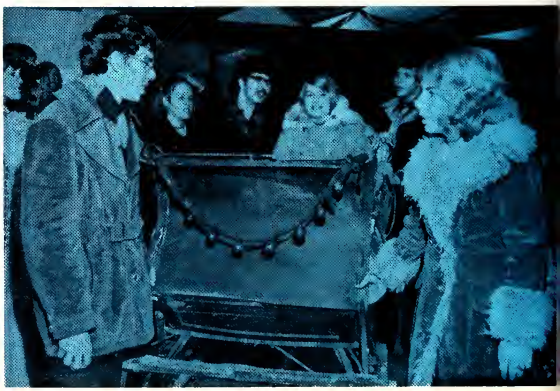
Homecoming activities.

The music department celebrates Christmas in these United States.



On October 16, the government classes sponsored a day-long trip to Washington, D.C. Ninety-six seniors left Fort Wayne on a United 727 jet to our nation's capital where they visited the following: Smithsonian Institute, Washington Monument and the Lincoln Memorial. Then they toured the Arlington National Cemetery where they witnessed the precision movement of the changing of the guard. The highlight of the tour was going to the Capitol building where Congressman Earl Landgrebe presented the group with a U.S. flag that had recently flown over the Capitol.

Seniors enjoy an exciting day at D.C.

Comedy highlights three 1-act plays in fall Drama production.

The Wawasee High School Drama Club put on three 1-act plays in the fall of 1973. These plays were "The Trysting Place", "The Ant Bed", and "Wilbur's Wild Night." All three plays were directed respectively by students Kirk Prickett, Tim Hoppes, and Mike Grotz.

Starting top clockwise: "Me like 'um your face," said Chief Tailfeather (Greg Fidler) to Wilbur (Craig Koble); Midge (Julee Staley) persuaded Alabaster (Ron Diehl), "I just want to make him jealous,"; Mr. Ingoldsby (Kirk Prickett) demanded from Cindy Hyndman, "I want my answer Fannie dear."

The Fourth Wall presents You Can't Take It With You.

Students enjoy varied convocations.

Starting above clockwise: Under New Management, a contemporary rock group, presented a number of popular hits; Joe Melendez prepared a referee's position in front of the student body; Scott Berry performed his own selection for the talent show; two race car drivers, Merle Bettenhausen and Johnny Parsons, Jr. gave a presentation on car safety

Starting above clockwise: Mr. and Mrs. Smith entered the gym through the decorated hall; Shannon Hall served punch and cookies to the seniors and their guests; Kathy Hamilton and Jerri Groves took their dates across the bridge to the dance floor; Kevin Rhoades and Kim Augsburger sat down for a moment to rest; Madison Zane entertained the seniors and guests with their fine music.

Prom theme is
"Three Coins in a Fountain."

"The future of the Earth is in our hands."

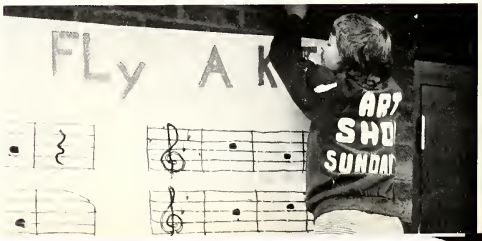
ACADEMICS



Administrators coordinate school program and govern over W.H.S.

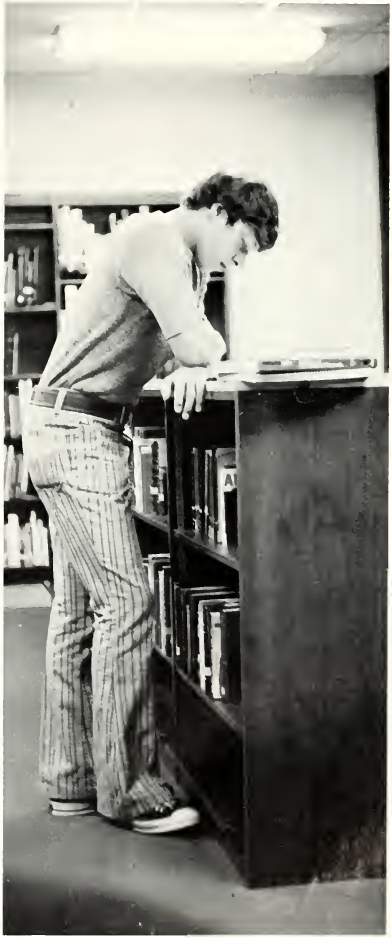
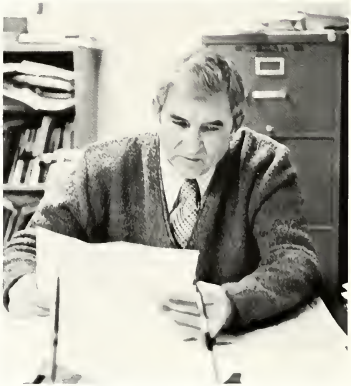
The librarians, secretaries, school nurse and A.V. aid students' needs.

Starting from far left clockwise: School nurse was Mrs. Robertson; Librarians were: Mary Whiteman, AB, MLS Indiana University, Margaret Reider, and Betty Reeder; Lisa Miller spent her first periods studying diligently; Larry Allen occupied his spare time locating needed materials; Robert Ritchie was the Audio Visual Instructor. Secretaries were: Esther Rider, Janet Hamman, Janet Elam, Ruth Angle, Betty Haines, and Sally Baker.



Guidance helps to set up our school curriculum.

Starting above clockwise: Maxine Robinson, B.S., M.S., Ball State; Mrs. Robinson and Mr. Marlette discussed the senior scholarship forms; Jack Marlette, B.A., Kalamazoo, M.A., Michigan State.



The Agriculture Department puts their new building to good use.

The Agriculture Department had much more freedom because of their new addition, which they shared with the Auto Mechanics Department. This building gave the students the room to work on individual projects such as repainting their tractors and repairing their farm machinery. The agricultural instructor was Dennis Mikesell, B.S., Purdue.

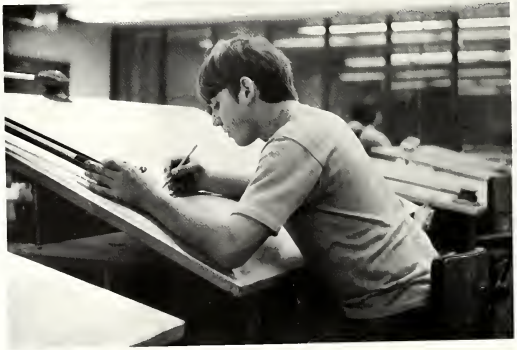
This past year the biggest event of the Industrial Ed. department was the Building Trades project. At the corner of Maple and Worth Streets, they constructed a house under the supervision of Mr. Rudy Cesco. This was a first for W.H.S., and with the profits from this project the Building Trades class planned to make this an annual event.

Pictured clockwise starting above: Roger Graber sighted and made plans for the Building Trades project; Well Rick, was it worth all your work?; Auto Mechanics students tried out their new equipment; Merlin Wolfe checked the cement before pouring the foundation; Rick Linville studied his work carefully.



Industrial Ed. ventures into many different areas.

James Alford, B.S., M.A., Ball State; Rudy Cesco, A.A., Pasadena City College, B.A., M.A., Ball State; David Matz, B.S., Indiana State University; Tom Robinson, 22 years experience; Lee Troyer, work experience; George Vitaniemi, B.S., Indiana State University, M.S., Ball State; Vocational Education instructor was Kenneth Stump, B.S., M.S., Purdue; David McGrew, Vocational Director, B.S., M.S., Indiana State.

Business gives students needed skills to pursue careers.

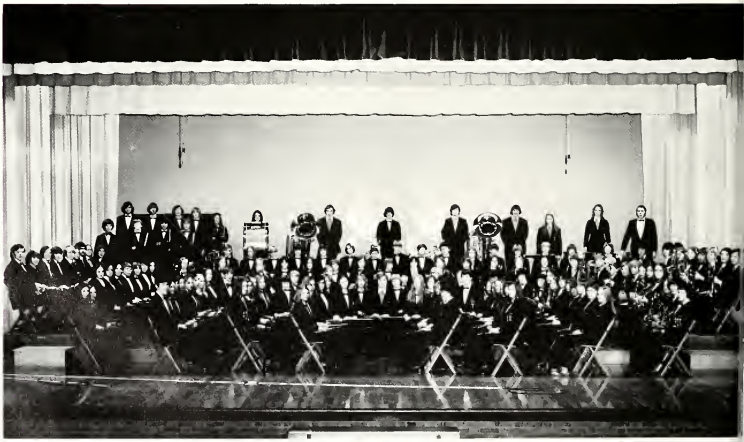
Elaine Hibschman, B.S., Manchester, M.S., Saint Francis; Patricia Huber, B.S., M.S., Indiana State; Jerry Minton, B.S., Manchester, M.A., Ball State; Don Storey, B.S., Manchester, M.A., Saint Francis; Eldon Ummel, B.S., Manchester, M.S., Indiana State.

Art is the reflection of creativity.

Clockwise from far left: "Hey Connie, what's in there?"; Sue Ball sized the situation up carefully; Ralph let's get moving, O.K.?; Mrs. Warner was caught admiring her students' work; Vicki Alexander asked, "Mr. Conley, are you sure this is right?"; Brian Lemburg sat down on the job.

Art at Wawasee was a big part of our academic scene. Students not only learned but had fun at the same time. The art department had their annual art show in the spring, and as usual, it was a great success.

Michael Conley, B.S., Ball State University; Joy Warner, B.F.A., Syracuse, M.A., St. Francis.



Students display talents marking a successful year for the marching and concert bands.

Clockwise starting at far left: The Wawasee Marching Band displayed our patriotic colors; Richy Timmons and Kathy Kell secured Mr. Blackwell while he directed the band in a successful homecoming performance; Kevin Fry was prepared for the first concert; Christi Beer, Leisa Napier and Lynn Helvey checked on some last minute problems; Sue Connolly kept the cornet section on their toes!; The Concert and Cadet Bands marked another successful year under the direction of David Blackwell, B.M.A., M.S., Indiana University.

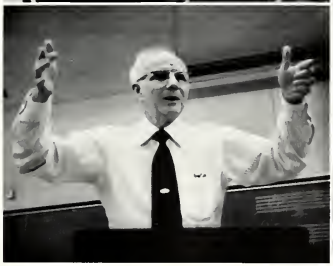
Concert Choir: row 1: L. Stutzman, M. Maloney, V. Elder, P. Wolf, J. Zimmerman, S. Rapp, S. Yahne, K. Hamilton, L. Hall, Mr. Chance. row 2: N. Gilbert, B. Davis, K. Trobaugh, A. Newman, P. Beer, D. Coburn, J. Kennedy, C. Packer, M. Smith, M. Gray, G. Dean, G. Smith, V. Wilson, S. Maggart.

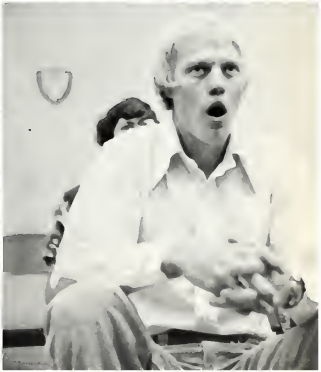
Women's: row 1: L. Garza, K. Brandon, C. Ritenour, K. Hostetler, K. Manges, M. Tom, C. Gray, Mr. Chance. row 2: R. Curtis, T. Pearson, K. Goins, E. Kauffman, C. Fisher, T. Parsons, A. Jessop, C. Holcomb. row 3: S. Myers, E. Grevenstuk, K. Koeingshof, B. Beer, T. Miller, C. Todd, K. Gardner, J. Black. row 4: D. Darr, H. Barrett, T. Ehman, K. White, K. Powe, J. Method, T. Bosstick, R. Miller, J. Fawley.

Cadet Choir: row 1: G. Christner, S. Davenport, B. Zimmerman, A. Pischle, Z. Cruz, M. Hall. row 2: P. Grisamer, D. Pryor, K. Cooper, C. Rector, V. Kaiser, S. Long, G. Gant, Mr. Chance. row 3: J. Gansert, K. Grindle, J. Iden, K. Koble, G. Brown, M. Amos, D. Martin, G. Krindle. row 4: Y. Zele, S. Badsky, J. Naab, J. Kussmaul, J. Housouer, T. Hammon, L. Bosstick, J. Mitchell.

Choirs and Santa cha cha their way through the Christmas season.

Starting right clockwise: Pianist, Craig Koble, awaited the signal of Mr. Chance to start the music; Sandy Maggart looked on as Mark Koble and Paul Gentry tried a new style; Keith Strauss sang out loud and clear; I think Mr. Chance liked what he heard!





Varner Chance, B.A. and M.A , Butler University.

Once again the choirs put on their annual Christmas Carol Banquet. The theme for their banquet was "Christmas in These United States." Under the direction of Varner Chance, the choirs gave four concerts last year; the swing choir traveled around the community giving concerts also. All were very successful marking another great year for the choirs.

Orchestra increases in size as well as talent.

The 1973-74 Concert Orchestra anticipated and achieved a successful year, under the direction of Varner Chance and James DeLay, B.M.E., M.A., Ball state; right: Larry Allen contributed his talents to the orchestra.

Students multiply their understanding through mathematics.

Starting above clockwise: Mr. Frank helped prepare the computers for his class; Bobby Wright must have gotten the right answer to that problem; Jim Benson studied the newly presented material; Mathematics Instructors were: Terry Frank, B.S., Ball State, M.S., New Mexico; Joseph Judkins, A.B., Hanover; Michael Neff, B.S., Manchester, M.S., Purdue; Donald Scholer, B.S., M.A., Ball State; Daryl Umbower, B.A., Grace, M.S., Saint Francis.

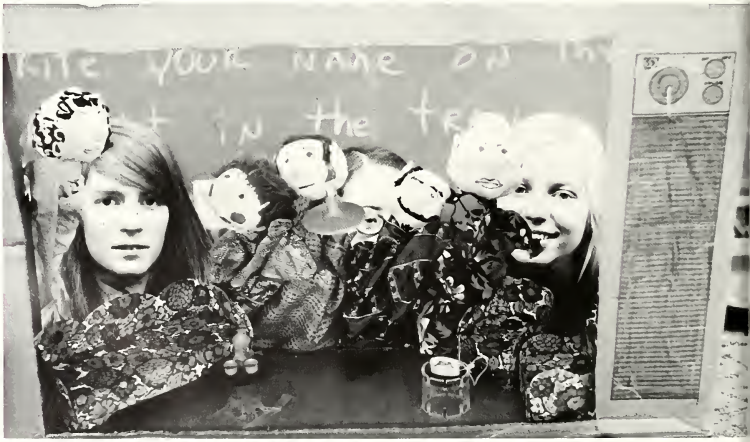
Science challenges the mind.

Keith Bowman, B.S. and M.S., Michigan; Karl Keiper, B.S., Manchester, M.S., Notre Dame; Robert Kitson, B.S., Manchester, M.A., Ball State; William Kitson, B.S., Manchester, M.A., Ball State; Paul Royer, A.B., Manchester, M.A., Ball State.

Starting far left clockwise: Diane Cook must have seen something Mr. Keiper hadn't explained; it looks like JoAnn Evans wasn't too sure about this experiment; Richard Linville really got involved in his work; Paul Miller and Al Kitson were sure they did the project right; Jeff Rhodes was the brain of the Physics class; Tad Chamberlin and Dave Hamilton made a great team!

Language Arts department tries a new program.

Starting right clockwise: Kirk Prickett pantomimed an actor before a performance; Anne Mangas demonstrated a folk dance in Individual Study; Marc Fry as Pyramus and Julie Thibaut as Moonshine lamented the death of Thisby; Kathy Koenigshof, Dyanne Tracey and Kay Rowe proudly presented their puppets.



This past year the Language Arts department tried and succeeded in the new idea of mini courses. Freshmen and sophomores dug deeper into plays and novels, while, college bound juniors and seniors had a chance to pick up some courses that would help them in their further course of study. Students who didn't care for the "usual" English courses took such classes as, Sports, Witches, Love, On Stage, Radio, and T.V. and many more. From reports heard, the students weren't the only ones that were kept busy.

Philip K. Fawley, B.S., Manchester, M.A., Ball State; Sharon Hahnlen, B.S., Iowa State University, M.A., University of Neuchatel (Switzerland); Linda Henry, B.A., Wittenburg; Terry Iden, B.S., M.A., Ball State; Linda Kehoe, B.S., Ball State; Roberta Powers, B.A., M.A., Ball State; Joel Robbins, B.A., Ball State; Norma Rush, A.B., Manchester; Max Ellen Smith, B.S., M.A., Ball State; Alan Zerkel, B.A., Manchester.

Foreign Language works to better our understanding of other lands.

Home Ec. stirs up ideas for the future.

From left clockwise: Cindy Rapp took her time to assure perfection; the Advanced Foods class, instructed by Janice Baumgartner, B.S., M.S., Ball State, prepared a meal fit for a king; Bernie Caple worked on her project in her Occupational Clothing class instructed by Betty Arthur, B.S., Ball State, M.A., Indiana University.

Social Science retells the past and prepares for the future.

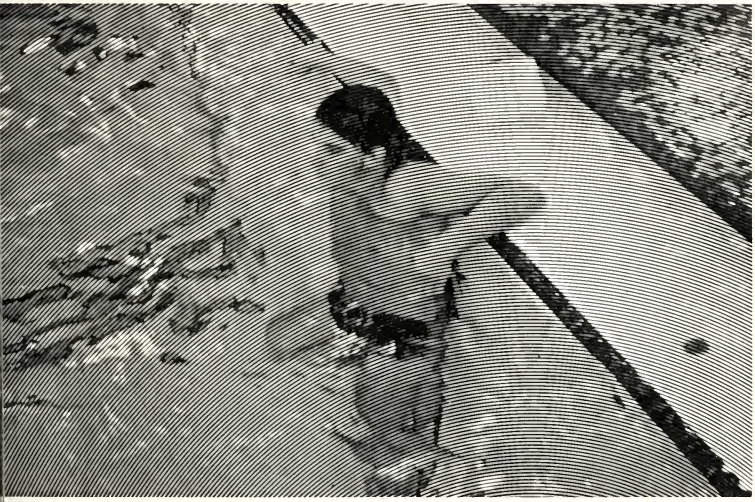
Ron Corson, B.A., Manchester, M.A., Ball State; Tony Clouse, B.S., Manchester, M.S., Indiana University; Walter Lunsford, B.S., Indiana University; Hal Traviolia, B.A., Wabash, M.A., Ball State; Vernon Zurcher, B.S., Huntington, M.A., Ball State

Marcia Carpenter, B.S., M.A., Ball State; Robert Heady, B.S., M.A., Ball State; Cindy Peterson, B.S., Ball State; David T. Rankin, B.S., Purdue; Don Storey, B.S., Manchester, M.A., St. Francis.

Physical Education provides knowledge along with recreation.



Starting from far left clockwise: Dennis Likens and Mitch Ousley tried their luck at shuffle board; Mr. Heady gave an assisting hand to a student; Mike Grotz took a long rest between races in his aquatics class; Karen Cooper and Nadine Rodgers flipped over their judo class!; a girls P.E. class practiced self defense along with their judo.

Bus Drivers were: Kenneth Felts, Bob Reitf, Wylie Bond, Ray Darr, Jerry Bushong, Ethel Weaver, Hop Haab, Dan Levernier, John Glon Sr. foreground: Doug Black, Devon Davis, Mel Weaver.

Custodians were: Donald Nei, Vivian Kern, Roy Stiffler, Elner Vanpelt, Ray Blitz, Louis Firestone, Jerry Hinssley.

Here we see Mrs. Coy cooking up a storm!

During the energy crisis WHS staff works diligently to keep us warm.

ORGANIZATIONS

left to right, row 1: R. Beer, K. Fry, M. Bitner, E. Paradis, T. Popenfoose, J. Yoder, J. Fisher, J. Carvajal, D. Brown, D. Schopt, B. Fawley, K. Stidham, M. Vanlaningham, C. Lisor, G. Dean, R. Brannock, R. Bauman, U. Carvajal, P. Dye, D. Ganz. row 2: J. Schacht, M. Grotz, D. Miller, G. Fidler, C. Paulus, J. Miller, T. Campbell, J. Wright, M. Wollman, J. D. Whiteman, R. Reiff, B. Korenstra, T. Chamberlin, D. Wollman, D. Hamilton, T. Yoder, P. Randall, S. Coverstone, J. Melendez, D. Madrick, A. Kitson, J. Owens, M. Smith, B. Wolfe, B. Lemberg

Dale Ganz, John Glon, Keith Strauss, Paul Dye, and Matt Gray displayed our Homecoming scores.

The Lettermen's Club consisted of many outstanding athletes who were proud to represent Wawasee. During the Homecoming game the Lettermen built a Tee Pee and the club members shot flaming arrows each time Wawasee made a touchdown. They topped off the Homecoming activities by raffling off the football used during the game.

FCA meets Nicki Cruz.

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes was an organization designed to give young men a chance to put Christ first in their lives. It developed a fellowship based on a common interest in sports combined with a practical and primary need for Christ. The club went to Plymouth H.S. to see a former New York gang leader Nicki Cruz. He has turned to Christ and presently spends his time talking to students about how much better his life has become.

Juan Carvajal, Mark Reiff and Jerry Wright worked hard to make a Homecoming float.

These band members got a short break from playing.

The pep band met once a week to practice for their performances. During the second half of every home football game they sat together as a group and played the school song at Wawasee touchdowns. During all home basketball games the pep band entertained the fans in between the JV games and the Varsity games. They also played at halftime of the Varsity games while the Pom Pon girls performed.

It looks as though they were out of tune.

Jazz Band provides experience in playing jazz.

The Jazz Band at Wawasee consisted of a group of band members who met weekly and played jazz music. They planned to play at the Lions Club, Kiwanis Club, and Rotary Club meetings.

Industrial Arts continues student interest in industrial education.

The Industrial Arts Club made plans to visit a manufacturing company, and they were involved in making a display case for the athletes. They also formed a basketball team, and challenged the FFA team.

left to right: Mr. Cesco, G. Miller, D. Martin, L. Zartman, D. Denney, J. Auer, B Slabaugh, G Harwood, Mr. Matz.

Girls' Sports Club sponsors Chicken B.B.Q.

The girls got a little behind in their work.

The club members worked fast to serve the long line of hungry people.

The Girls' Sports Club consisted of all girls who liked to work at sporting events. The members signed up for the event they liked best and then helped keep score, time or whatever needed to be done. For the Homecoming activities the Girls' Sports Club sponsored a Chicken BBQ before the homecoming game.

It seems they got a moment's rest.

The intramurals consisted of many boys not involved in winter sports who liked to participate in athletics within the school. All of the boys involved divided into teams and played basketball games against each other weekly. Many faculty members also got involved by forming a men's team and played against most of the student teams.

The Yearbook Staff works hard to produce the Legend.

John Gardner skied at Michigan.

Below: Jeff Miller and his friend rode the ski lift to the top.

The Ski Club had an over-abundance of snow last winter. Many times the ski club members met at Mt. Wawasee to get the discount fee for large groups. Also they went on a trip to Cannonsburg, Michigan.

The DECA homecoming float won first place in the Most Appropriate to Theme category.

DECA stood for Distributive Education Clubs of America. This club was unique in the way that the senior members met each day as a class then were dismissed for the last three periods to work. They received both a classroom grade and a grade at their jobs. The club participated and did very well in local, district, and state competition with other DECA clubs. There were many helpful experiences learned and practiced throughout the year.

The Speech Club was built around the competitive nature of public speaking. Students from each grade who were members of the Speech Club competed as a Speech Team. The Speech Team participated in tournaments held on Saturdays during the winter months, and competed for team and individual recognition. The areas of competition during a meet included radio broadcasting, poetry reading, original oratory, girls and boys extemporaneous speaking, discussion, impromptu speaking, dramatic interpretation and humorous interpretation. In the future the team planned to become more active in the area by hosting a Junior High Tournament with our local schools.

In the fall the Drama Club put on three one act plays consisting of "Wilburs Wild Night," "Trysting Place," and "The Ant Bed." These three plays were under the direction of three Wawasee students. In the spring the club produced a play called You Can't Take It With You under the direction of Mr. Zerkel and Mr. Robbins, sponsors of the Drama Club. The Drama Club adapted a new name for their group, The Fourth Wall. The Fourth Wall represented the imaginary wall between the actors and the audience.

Donna Gardner and Beverly Zimmerman rode on the homecoming float built by the Future Homemakers.

The FHA had many projects through the year. In the fall, they entered the Homecoming float contest and also had a Tupperware sale. Also, they held a Halloween party. During every home basketball game the FHA held a coat check. In the spring they sponsored a mother, daughter banquet with a style show to top off the evening.

Charlie Packer, Shannon Hall, and Kim Shipley tried to win a game during the Fall Dressdown.

Alice Gunden and Debbie Miller prepared Christmas plates for teachers.

The SAE's theme for the year was "Get Involved," and they did get involved. They had an elf program and the members made Christmas plates for teachers. They were involved with the school and community by sponsoring a Swap Day, giving the mental health patients gifts at Christmas, entering a float in the homecoming parade, and holding an exchange day with Columbia City students. Once again the club held a Fall Dressdown and had ISTA films about the teaching profession, observing the Jr. High and elementary schools for ideas.

The Chess Club was formed to provide an opportunity for students and faculty to learn about the game of chess. There were approximately twenty members and the club was sponsored by Mr. Zerkel and Mr. Robbins. At the first of the year there was a great deal of emphasis on the instruction and learning of chess followed by a period of competition. The club hoped to start an annual Wawasee chess tournament and possibly active competition with area schools.

Our last year of high school was a restless one for everyone. With our future staring us right in the face, "What will I do after I graduate?" was a common question in all our minds. The senior class sponsored the usual activities this year such as: the trip to Washington, D.C., Chicken Bar-B-Que, Prom, and Graduation.

The Juniors spent the 73-74 year making money for their senior activities. They were kept busy with football concessions and magazine sales. Two academic activities they participated in were the PSAT and SAT tests. Even with all their busy activities, they found time to show their spirit by winning the spirit stick during a football pep session.

The '73-'74 year for the Sophomores was a mixture of first time experiences and traditions. They had a class party on February 23 at Mt. Wawasee. Following the Wawasee tradition the Sophomores struggled through their NEDT tests and mandatory Health class. They started a new tradition with their rotating English classes, giving them a chance to experience different Language Arts teachers and were the first class to have the Career Education class instead of speech. All in all they had a year full of a mixture of feelings and experiences.

The Warriors participate in first IHSAA state playoffs.

The fighting Warriors made a name for themselves this season, not only as the NLC champs but also in the state playoffs. Due to a forfeit to Warsaw the Warriors ended the successful season with a 9-1 record. This record gave the Warriors a berth in the first state semi-finals, where they were finally stopped by Blackford 28-14. Most Valuable Player was awarded to Mike Vanlaningham, the captain and Outstanding Lineman was Mark Reiff. Other awards were Mark Smith, Outstanding Back and Doug Brown, Mental Attitude.

Cheerleaders urge athletes onto victory.

Clapping, making signs, yelling and leading the school song were just a few of the many things that kept our Warrior Cheerleaders hopping during the past year. When they weren't leading a cheer or welcoming another school, they could sometimes be caught "hanging around." Mrs. Jan Baumgartner was their sponsor.

Wrapped in a blanket of thoughts, I search the mirrors of my mind, reflecting images of life, some softly glowing, others harshly glaring back.
As life slips through the sieve of time, I ponder, wonder and remember.
